THE SEVERAL ACTS

OF THE

GENERAL COURT RELATING TO THE SOCIETY.

AN ACT

To incorporate JONATHAN GARDNER, jun. and others therein named, into a Society, by the name of the MARINE SOCIETY, at Salem, in the County of Essex, in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England.

WHEREAS a considerable number of persons, who are or have been Masters of ships or other vessels, have for several years past associated themselves in the town of Salem; and the principal end of said Society being to improve the knowledge of this coast, by the several members, upon their arrival from sea, communicating their observations, inwards and outwards, of the variation of the needle, soundings, couses and distances, and all other remarkable things about it, in writing, to be lodged with the Society, for the making the navigation more safe; and also to relieve one another and their families in poverty or other adverse accidents of life, which they are more particularly liable to; and have for this end raised a considerable common stock; and the said persons associated as aforesaid, finding themselves under difficulties and discouragements in carrying on the said designs without an incorporation; and Jonathan Gardner, jun., and others of them, having petitioned the Great and General Court of this Province in their present session, to be incorporated for the purposes aforesaid; and their intention appearing laudable and deserving encouragement:

Be it enacted by the Governor, Council and House of Representatives, That, Jonathan Gardner, jun., John Ropes, Samuel Webb, William Lilly, Amos Mansfield, Michael

Driver, Israel Obear, Edmund Needham, Robert Hale Ives, Larkin Dodge, William Bartlett, Joseph Lambert, Benjamin West, Edmund Giles, William Slewman, Samuel Williams, Josiah Batchelder, John Batten, John Elkins, George Crowninshield, Edward Gibaut, Joseph Lee, Edward Allen, Samuel Grant, Jacob Crowninshield, Josiah Orne, Ebenezer Ward, jun., Daniel Hawthorne, John Derby, Cabot Gerrish, George Southard, David Masury, Nathaniel Knight, John Archer, John Berry, Habakkuk Bowditch, John Bowditch, Jonathan Webb, John Fisk, William Morgan, Robert Alcock, Jona. Mason, Stephen Cleveland, Benjamin Warren, Thomas Frye, Jonathan Lambert, jun., Henry Higginson, and George Cabot, the Members of said Society, be incorporated and made a body politic, for the purpose aforesaid, by the name of the MARINE SOCIETY, at Salem, in New England:—And that they, their associates, and successors, have perpetual succession by said name, and have a power of making by-laws for the preservation and advancement of said body, not repugnant to the laws of the government; with penalty, either of disfranchisement from said Society, or of a mulct not exceeding twenty shillings, or without penalties, as it shall seem most meet; and have leave likewise to make and appoint their common seal, and be liable to be sued, and enable to sue, and make purchases, and take donations, of real and personal estate, for the purpose aforesaid, provided the rents of the real estate, together with the interest of the personal estate, shall not exceed the sum of five hundred pounds per annum; and to manage and dispose of said estate as shall seem fit: And said Society shall have a Master, Deputy Master, Treasurer and Clerk and other officers they shall think proper.

And be it therefore further enacted, That the said Marine Society, shall on the second Thursday in June next, assemble to appoint their first Master, Deputy-Master, Treasurer and Clerk, and other officers as they shall think proper, and their seal, and make by-laws: and said officers shall continue until the last Thursday in October next, on which day the said Marine Society shall meet annually; afterwards on the said last Thursday of October annually, at Salem aforesaid, to choose a Master, Deputy Master, Treasurer and Clerk, and other officers as they shall think proper; and for the admission of new Members, which shall be done by a major vote of the Members present at such annual meeting; and to make, alter and annul their by-laws; and if by reason of any emergency, the business of said annual assembly cannot be completed on said day, they may adjourn once to a short day to finish it, and no more; and said Society shall meet at Salem, on the last Thursday of every month for all other business; and whenever any of the Officers of said Society shall die, or be disabled or remove out of the government; others shall be appointed or elected in their room, at the next monthly meeting: and all instruments which said Society shall lawfully make, shall when in the name of said Society, and pursuant to the votes thereof, and signed and delivered by the Master, and sealed with their common seal, bind said Society, and be valid in law.

PASSED IN 1771.

AN ACT

In addition to an act, entitled "An Act to incorporate JONATHAN GARDNER, jun., and others therein named, into a Society by the name of the MARINE SOCIETY, at Salem, in the County of Essex, in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England."

WHEREAS, in and by an act entitled, "An Act to incorporate JONATHAN GARDNER, jun., and others therein named, into a Society by the name of the MARINE SOCIETY, at Salem, in the County of Essex, in the Province of Massachusetts Bay, in New England, it is among other things enacted, "That the said Society shall have an annual meeting on the last Thursday of October, to choose such officers as they shall think proper—for the admission of new members, by a majority of the votes of the members then present, and to make, alter and annul their by-laws; and likewise that the said Society shall meet at the said Salem, on the last Thursday of every other month, for conducting all other business." And whereas the said Society have represented to this Court, that the beneficial purposes of the institution thereof will be as effectually accomplished by having their meetings less frequent, and the admission of new members, conducted in another manner, than is described in said act:

Be it enacted by the Senate and the House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, there shall be four quarterly meetings of the said Society, viz: On the last Thursday of October, on the last Thursday of January, on the last Thursday of April, and on the last Thursday of July annually; and at either of said meetings, they are hereby authorized to perform all and every business they were empowered to perform at their annual meeting on the last Thursday of October, by the before recited act, excepting that no person proposed to be a member of the said Society, shall be admitted at either of those meetings, unless there be three-fourths of the votes of the members present at such meeting for his admission.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever any six members of said Society shall, in writing, directed to the Master of the said Society, request a meeting may be called, other than the quarterly meetings before mentioned, the said Master, on such application, shall call a meeting of the said Society, and direct the Clerk to notify the members thereof accordingly; at which meeting the said Society are hereby empowered to do and perform every matter they have hitherto been empowered to do and perform at their monthly meetings before the passing of this act.

And be it further enacted, That all the clauses contained in the before recited act, so far as they relate to the matters contained in this act, be, and they are hereby repealed.

PASSED MARCH 9, 1784.

AN ACT

For repealing an Act, made and passed in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, entitled, "An Act in addition to an Act, for incorporating JONATHAN GARDNER, jun., and others therein named, into a Society by the name of the MARINE SOCIETY, at Salem, in the County of Essex, in the province of the Massachusetts Bay, in New England;" and also for altering said Act of Incorporation.

WHEREAS, by the representation of the said MARINE SOCIETY, it appears that the effects resulting from said Act, made and passed in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, are not such as were expected, and that the benevolent views in instituting said Society will be greatly promoted, should the said Act be repealed, and some alterations be made in the said Act of Incorporation:

Be it therefore enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That the said Act, made and passed in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, entitled "An Act in addition to an Act, for incorporating JONATHAN GARDNER, jun., and others therein named, into a Society, by the name of the MARINE SOCIETY, at Salem, in the County of Essex, in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, in New England," be, and the same is hereby repealed.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said MARINE SOCIETY, may and shall, have as full power and authority at each of the monthly meetings of said Society, for the purpose of electing and admitting members, as they have by said Act of Incorporation at their annual meeting of the last Thursday of October. Provided, That no person shall be elected and admitted as a member thereof at any other meeting of said MARINE SOCIETY than the said annual meeting on the last Thursday of October, unless two-thirds of the members present at such meeting vote, and be in favor of such admission.

PASSED FEBRUARY 8, 1790.

AN ACT

In addition to an Act, entitled "An Act to incorporate JONATHAN GARDNER, jun., and others therein named, into a Society by the name of the MARINE SOCIETY of Salem, in the County of Essex, in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, in New England.

Be it enacted by the Senate and the House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That the Corporation established by the Act, to which this Act is in addition, be and hereby is authorized to take and hold, by donation, or otherwise, for the purpose of said Corporation, real and personal estate, the annual income of which shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars, any thing in the Act to which this Act is in addition to the contrary notwithstanding.

PASSED JAN. 14, 1831.

BY-LAWS, &c.

ARTICLE I.

THE Members of this Society shall consist of persons who now are, or have been, masters or commanders of vessels: and also of persons, who now are or have been, owners of vessels. Provided, that no person shall be admitted a member who has been eligible more than seven years, or is more than forty years of age, except by a vote at a yearly meeting.

II.

The Officers of this Society shall be elected annually on the last Thursday in October in conformity to the Acts of Incorporation, consisting of a Master, Deputy-Master, Treasurer and Clerk;—at the same time there shall be chosen an Agent, and a Committee consisting of two persons, for the Franklin Building; also a Distributing Committee of five, of which the Master shall always be one, and the Chairman, and the oldest member of the other four shall withdraw from the Committee each year. At the same meeting, the salaries of the Clerk and Agent of the Franklin Building for the year next ensuing shall be fixed by vote of the Society.

III.

The Members of this Society, shall meet on the last Thursday of every month throughout the year, at such place in Salem as the Society from time to time shall agree upon —at six o'clock, P. M., from the twenty-first day of September until the twenty-first day of March—and at seven o'clock, P. M., through the rest of the year. They shall also attend the occasional meetings which may be duly called by the Master as hereinafter provided. Any Member absent from a monthly meeting, except those who have been members twenty-five years, they having paid all fines to this date, shall pay to the Society the sum of twelve and a half cents. The roll shall be called by the Clerk at the time at which the Society is notified to meet, and all members, not present before the calling of the roll is through, shall be considered absent.

IV.

There shall be elected annually, on the last Thursday in September, a Committee of three to examine the Treasurer's accounts; and a Committee of three to select candidates for all the Officers and Standing Committees of the Society, for the year commencing on the last Thursday in October; and the Reports of these Committees shall be made on the last Thursday in October.

V.

The election of Officers, and the admission of new members, shall be by ballot—the white balls, yea, and the black balls, nay; and the number of votes necessary for their election, and their admission, shall be in conformity to the Acts of Incorporation, passed in 1771, and on the 8th of February, 1790.

VI.

The Master of the Society shall be Moderator at all meetings; in his absence, the Deputy-Master; in the absence of both, the Treasurer; and in the absence of all three, the oldest member present. The Master shall prepare, arrange, and present all the business to the Society; he shall receive and answer all letters and addresses to the Society; and shall call Special Meetings, when not less than six members shall make application in writing for that purpose.

VII.

The Treasurer shall receive all moneys, rents, mortgages, notes, and stocks belonging to the Society, and shall render an account of the same at each annual meeting in October, which account shall have been previously examined by the Committee appointed for that purpose at the preceding September meeting, as provided in Article Fourth.

There shall no transfer of the Society's property be made, nor any moneys drawn from the Treasury, except by an express vote of the Society.

VIII.

The Clerk shall notify the Members of each meeting of the Society, by leaving a printed notice at the residence of every member, three days at least, before the time fixed for the meeting ; he shall insert upon said printed notice, the names of candidates, together with the names of the members nominating them. He shall keep a record of all doings of the Society at every meeting ; shall notify all members chosen to be officers, or on committees; and when persons are admitted to be Members, shall give them notice of their admission, and when they have signed the Books of the Society, shall give them a copy of the Act of Incorporation, By-Laws, Names of Members, and a Certificate of Membership of the Society.

IX.

It shall be the duty of the Agent of the Franklin Building to have it improved to the best advantage ; and he shall collect the rents every quarter, and pay over to the Treasurer of the Society, and render his account, approved by the Committee for the Franklin Building, on the last Thursday in October annually. It shall be the duty of the Committee for the Franklin Building, to make all necessary repairs and improvements upon it—but not to expend exceeding two thirds the net annual income, excepting by a vote of the Society, at a monthly meeting.

X.

The presence of at least eleven members shall be required to constitute a quorum for transacting business.

XI.

The funds of the Society shall hereafter be invested in United States, State, City or Town Securities, Bank Stock in this Commonwealth, or on mortgage of Real Estate ; or in the improvement of the Franklin Building on interest and receiving the increase of rent until paid. No investment shall be changed without a vote of the Society.

XII.

Any person, desirous of becoming a Member of this Society, shall be nominated by a Member, at one monthly meeting previous to his being voted for. Each person on his admission shall pay to the Clerk forty dollars, and one dollar and fifty cents additional for each and every year the applicant has been eligible. The above named sums may be increased or diminished by a vote of the Society at an annual meeting.

XIII.

The amount of admission fees, with the fines received from members, shall be an increasing fund, and shall not be devoted to benevolent purposes.

XIV.

The amount to be distributed for benevolent purposes shall be voted on the last Thursday of November annually, and, when necessary, at any other monthly or special meeting—but it shall not exceed the net annual income from the Society's funds except in extraordinary cases. After an appropriation is made, the Distributing Committee may demand the amount from the Treasurer in such sums as will be the most convenient to them, and they shall render an account to the Society for the same.

XV.

Any Member, or the widow or children of any Member, who may be in want of assistance, shall apply to the Distributing Committee, who, if they think proper, may assist from the appropriation at their disposal for benevolent purposes,—and if they have no funds to relieve the applicant, they shall lay the case before the Society, at a monthly or special meeting, and the Society shall have power to make an appropriation as per article No. 14. But no member shall be entitled to any relief from the Society, until he has been a member for the term of one year, and conformed to the By-Laws thereof, except in extraordinary cases, which shall be decided by the Society. If a member die within a year from the time of signing the books of the Society, the money received from him shall be refunded to his widow or children on their demanding the same: but if his widow or children do not demand it they shall be entitled to all proper assistance from the Society. No male child of more than fourteen years of age, nor female of more than sixteen years of age, shall receive any assistance on account of his or her father, having been a Member, unless they require relief from incapacity or ill health. The Distributing Committee shall give the Clerk a list of all the persons assisted, and the sums distributed to them, and he shall enter the same on the records of the Society, once in each year.

XVI.

The Clerk shall call on members that have been absent twelve monthly meetings for their fines, and in case they are absent for eighteen monthly meetings successively, unless they be at sea, and refuse to pay their fines, the Clerk shall report the same to the Society at a monthly meeting, and they shall have power by a vote of two thirds of the members present, to strike their names from the books of the Society and they shall from that time forfeit all claim to assistance from the funds of the Society.

XVII.

If any member shall commit a notorious crime, or be given to excessive drinking, or disturb the peace and good order of the Society, a majority of the Members present at any monthly meeting, shall have power to strike his name from the books of the Society ; and he shall thereafter have no claims to assistance from the Society.

XVIII.

Every member of this Society upon his arrival from sea, shall make known in writing any extraordinary circumstance that has occurred, or any discovery he has made during his voyage.

An agent be appointed annually, whose duty it shall be to have the property belonging to the Society fully insured and report the same semi-annually to the Society.

BEQUESTS.

Extract from the Will of THOMAS PERKINS, Esq.

"I give and devise to the Marine Society, at Salem, in New England, and their successors and assigns, all that my BRICK BUILDING and LAND with the appurtenances, known by the name of FRANKLIN PLACE in Salem aforesaid, being the same which I bought of Josiah Dow; on condition that the said Marine Society shall annually apply the net rents and profits thereof to the relief of such Poor and Indigent Members of the said Society, who may not be given to excessive drinking, as shall be annually designated by the Officers of the said Society for the time being."

This Building was entirely destroyed by fire, Oct. 21st, 1860. Rebuilt again, and mostly by subscription, and occupied May 29th, 1862.

Extract from the Will of Capt. NATHANIEL WEST.

"3d. I give, devise and bequeath unto the Salem Marine Society, all my shares, stock and interest in Derby Wharf in Salem; also, all the stores and other buildings belonging to me, standing upon said wharf, with all the privileges and appurtenances to the same belonging,—to have and to hold the same to the said Marine Society upon this trust, viz: That they shall apply and appropriate the annual income and profits thereof, under the direction of the Government of said Society for the time being, for the relief and support of the widows of indigent members of said Society, every year, forever:—and I make this and a subsequent provision, to testify the interest I feel in the seafaring population of my native place."

(By the 10th article of the will, certain bank stocks are put into the hands of John G. King and Henry Gardner, trustees, the income to be invested, and the whole to accumulate for fifteen years,—at the end of which time)

"My said Trustees shall pay to the Salem Marine Society, for the purpose of establishing and forever maintaining a School for the Nautical and Commercial Education of Young Men of Salem, who may be intended for a seafaring life, the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars out of said fund, to hold upon the following especial trust: that is to say,— "That the Government of said Society shall place and keep said sum at interest, upon such sufficient securities as they may consider best for all concerned, and receive and apply the annual income thereof as follows, viz:

"They shall hire or purchase a suitable room or rooms for said School, and fit up and furnish the same with all necessary and proper furniture and apparatus, books, or other useful articles, and keep the same from time to time in good order and repair. The said School shall be under the care and instruction of a Teacher, at such a salary as will obtain the services of a person of capacity and acquirements adequate to teach all the branches of knowledge necessary to a thorough acquaintance with the theory and practice of Navigation in all its branches, Geography, Geometry, and the History, progress and present state of Trade and Commerce, foreign and domestic, and all other studies which may be useful in forming the character of a well instructed ship-master, factor, and merchant: said School shall consist of no more than twenty-five scholars at any one time; shall be confined to children of inhabitants of Salem, preference always being given to children, descendants, or relatives of those who have been, are, or shall become Members of said Salem Marine Society. No scholar shall be admitted into said School under the age of fifteen years, nor remain in it longer than three years at farthest. The said teacher shall be elected by the Mayor of the City of Salem, the Master and Deputy Master of said Marine Society, the President of the East India Marine Society, and the Principal of the English High School in Salem for the time being, who are requested and empowered to act; and are hereby appointed a board of election and visitation of this Charity, with authority to visit said School semi-annually, and at all other times at their discretion, with power to make regulations for the government thereof from time to time—and to remove said Teacher for incompetency, misconduct, or any other sufficient cause, and appoint a successor as often as occasion may require."

Copy of HENRY BARR'S Will.

I, Henry Barr, of Salem, Mariner, do make my last Will as follows:—I give to Mrs. Sarah L. Buffum, my mother-in-law, one thousand dollars for her use. I give and devise to John Russell, Esq., all the rest of my real and personal estate, to be by him held on this trust; that he shall invest and keep the same at interest during the life time of my daughter, Ellen Augusta, and shall pay her from time to time, the interest and income thereof, for her use; and if necessary for her comfort and support, any part of the principal; and after her decease, shall pay the same to her lawful issue; but if she dies leaving no issue, then I give the same to the Salem Marine Society, to be by them in trust applied and paid toward the building, erecting and supporting a Bethel Church in Salem, for the accommodation of Seamen, to have the Gospel preached to them. My daughter's sole receipt, even if married, to be valid, and her husband to have no control,

I appoint said Russell executor hereof; and authorize him to sell my real estate.
